MRS. CHRISTOPHER M. CALKINS
the former Miss Sarah E. Brown

Wed In Morning Ceremony

Miss Sarah Elizabeth Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Berkley Brown of Appomattox, became the bride of Christopher Miles Calkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Albert Calkins of Clermont, Florida, on October 2, 1976 at the Hollywood Baptist Church in Appomattox County.

The double ring ceremony was performed at 11 a.m. by the Rev. Gordon I. Mason of Lynchburg.

A program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Helen Talbert of Dillwyn.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown fashioned of white silk organza and re-embroidered Chantilly lace. The lace bodice was finished with a high Victorian neckline and long sleeves which were scalloped at the hand, full floor-length organza skirt ending in a cathedral train. A wide band of lace encircled the hemline of the skirt and train.

Her veil was a finger-tip length mantilla of silk illusion, edged with lace with appliques of lace scattered over the surface of the mantilla. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and spider mums centered with white carnations encircled in ivy.

Miss Patsy Ann Hughes of Appomattox was maid of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of orange polyester which was crochet edged on the long sleeve bolero jacket over the sleeveless empire gown. The shirred V-neck bodice had a diamond inset catching the front shirring of the easy skirt. She carried a nosegay of organge mums accented with eucalyptus and brown ribbons.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Harold Wyatt of Appomattox and Mrs. Gilbert Wilson, Jr. of Virginia Beach, cousin of the bride. They wore dresses identical to the maid of honor and carried matching nosegays.

Junior bridesmaid was Miss Katherine Ruth Ogg, niece of the bride. She wore a floor length gown of polyester print edged in white lace with a diamond inset. She carried a nosegay matching the bridesmaids.

Miss Virginia Dawn Wilson of Virginia Beach, was the flower girl. She wore a floor length dress of white polyester trimmed with lace and carried a white straw basket of petals.

Ringbearer was Master Zane Torrence of Appomattox and junior usher was Master Dewitt Goin of Prospect.

Mr. David Thomas Calkins of Detroit, Michigan, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Harold Wyatt of Appomattox, and Harold Howard of Lynchburg.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Brown selected a floor length gown fashioned of quiana in a persimmon tone. The bodice was finished with a high dropped neckline and long straight sleeves.

Mrs. Calkins, mother of the groom, wore a floor length shirtwaist Molly Parnis design of silk jersey in a golden beige color with white leaves scattered on the background.

They both wore a corsage of stephanotis and spider mums with color accents of their gowns.

Mrs. Herbert Garrett and Mrs. Robert Garrett were Mistresses of Ceremonies.

Guests were registed in the bride's book by Mrs. John Burns of Gettsyburg, Pennsylvania.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained with a reception in the church. The reception was hosted by Mrs. Barbara Dickerson of Prospect, cousin of the bride, with Mrs. Frank Goin, Mrs. Hunter Goin and Mrs. George Kress assisting.

Cutting the cake were Mrs. Dennis Torrence and Mrs. Richard Jones. Mrs. David Smith and Mrs. Ed Schampel served at the punch bowl. The flower arrangements for the church and the home of the bride were done by Mrs. Schampel.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox County High School and is presently attending Longwood College. The bridegroom is currently employed with Appomattox Court House National Historical park and is also attending Longwood College.

After a southern wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Appomattox.

Present at the wedding were the bride's grandmother and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Shupe. Also present, were the aunts of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. James Jennings of Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Zop of Rocky Mt., N.C., Mr. and Mrs. David Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carter, both of Appomattox, and her uncle and wife, Mr. and Mrs. David Smith, of Appomattox.

Also, attending were Mr. Richard Couture and his son, from Longwood College, a teacher of both the bride and bridegroom, and a number of the bride's classmates.

MRS. DAVID WATSON SMITH, JR.
the former Miss Donna Lee Cyrus

Wed In Evening Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Donna Lee Cyrus, daughter of Mrs. A. R. Cyrus of Evergreen and the late Mr. Cyrus, to David Watson Smith, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. David Smith of Spout Spring took place at 6:30 Friday evening, October 1 at Reedy Springs Baptist Church.

The bridegroom is the grandson of Mrs. Mabel Robertson of Spout Spring and Mrs. Pearl Hermann of Hollywood, Fla.

The Rev. James Price, minister of Old Concord Presbyterian Church officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Miss Robin Tomlin of Spout Spring, organist, presented a program of nuptial music.

The bride, escorted by her brother-in-law Mr. J. D. Mayberry, of Lynchburg and given in marriage by her mother wore a traditional wedding gown fashioned of white silk. The gown's v-shaped neckline was accented by appliqued lace as were the contoured waistline, full length sleeves and hemline. The floor length skirt was gathered at the back waistline and ended in a chapel train. The veil of illusion featured a fingertip veil and a floor length veil attached to a juliet cap trimmed with lace. She carried a bouquet of miniature yellow roses and white carnations.

Miss Nancy Smith of Lynchburg, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. Her floor length halter gown was mint green crepe with a matching long sleeve jacket of organza. She carried long stemmed yellow roses. Bridesmaids were Miss Karen Chandler of Pamplin and Miss Betty Cheatham of Spout Spring. Their gowns and bouquets were fashioned identical to that of the honor attendant.

Miss Peggy Marie Mayberry of Spout Spring, niece of the bride was flower girl. She wore a floor length, long sleeve, mint green dress. Lace accented the waist and neckline. She carried a basket of red rose petals.

Master Michael Dalton of Lynchburg was ringbearer and Master Timothy Carrico of Evergreen was acolyte. Both are nephews of the bride.

Mr. Smith served as his son's best man. Ushers were John Robertson of Lynchburg and Mark Carson of Roanoke, both cousins of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Kenneth Doss of Spout Spring, served as Mistress of Ceremonies. Guests were registered at the bride's book by Mrs. Charles Dalton of Lynchburg, sister of the bride.

Following the ceremony, the wedding guests were entertained by the bride's mother with a reception in the social hall of the church.

Mrs. Robert Waldo, of Appomattox was assisted at the reception by sisters of the bride. Mrs. James Carrico of Evergreen and Mrs. J. D. Mayberry of Lynchburg served the wedding cake and Mrs. Peggy Mayberry of Spout Spring, served at the punch bowl.

For the occasion the bride's mother chose a short sleeve, street length dress of mint green polyester double knit. She added a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. Smith wore a floor length, long sleeve dress of creme polyester double knit. She added a corsage of yellow carnations.

After a wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Spout Spring.
